

Fact Sheet:

Gang Violence Suppression Program Suppression of Drug Abuse in Schools Program

Overview:

The Gang Violence Suppression Program and the Suppression of Drug Abuse in Schools Program are funded and monitored by the Department of Alcohol and Drug Programs and managed under an Interagency Agreement (IA) with the Office of Criminal Justice Planning (OCJP). Funding for both programs is made available by the Safe and Drug-Free Schools and Communities Act of 1994, through the U.S. Department of Education. The Department receives 20 percent of the Governor's Discretionary portion of this annual federal grant to California. The law requires that not less than 10 percent of the Governor's portion be spent on Law Enforcement Education Partnerships. The Interagency Agreement fulfills this federal requirement. Total funding for the IA in Fiscal Year 2001-2002 is $2,466,000.

Gang Violence Suppression Program:

In the 2001-2002 Fiscal Year, the Gang Violence Suppression Program consists of six subcontracts (of approximately $100,000 each) to local community agencies. These agencies will provide services in two or more of the following categories: conflict resolution, services, mentoring programs, individual and family guidance, vocational training and job placement. The agencies receiving funding are:

- Boys & Girls Club of Westminster
- Community Self Determination Institute

- Students in Business
- International Institute of East Bay
- East Bay Asian Youth Center
- North County Lifeline

Suppression of Drug Abuse in Schools Programs:

The Suppression of Drug Abuse in Schools Program, in the 2001-2002 Fiscal Year, includes 19 projects subcontracted to local agencies to create partnerships between law enforcement agencies and school districts. These projects place uniformed police or sheriff's department personnel on school campuses to involve and train students, parents, teachers and school administrators in suppression of drug abuse and related gang activities.

The agencies receiving funding in the 2001-2002 Fiscal Year are:

- Berkeley Unified School District
- City of Fountain Valley Police Department
- City of Anaheim Police Department
- Temecula Valley Unified School District
- City of Hayward Police Department
- Kerman Unified School District
- City of Marysville Police Department
- Merced County Office of Education
- Redlands Unified School District
- Riverside County Office of Education
- Riverside Unified School
- County of Madera Sheriff's Department
- City of Santa Rosa Police Department

- San Leandro Unified School District
- Palo Verde Unified School District
- City of Turlock Police Services
- Monterey Peninsula Unified School District
- City of Oceanside Police Department
- Yuba County Office of Education

For more information please contact the Department of Alcohol and Drug Programs at (916) 445-0860, or the Office of Criminal Justice Planning at (916) 324-9184.